OLD ENGLISH CHRISTMAS CAROLS WILL WAKE ECHOES ON DECEMBER 24

HOLY NIGHT

Mr. Fourth St.

"God bless you, merry gentlemen, May nothing you dismay!"
The famous old English Christmas carol and many others of its kind settling forth the happy spirit of the yuletide, will be sung throughout Honolulu on the evening of December 24 by bands of carolers now being organized in different parts of the city. Although the custom of singing carols on Christmas eve has long prevailed on the mainland and in other countries, this is its initial appearance in Hawaii, and those who are at the head of the movement are anxious to make it a success.
In order to make it a success, therefore, every resident of Honolulu who is possessed with the spirit of Christmas is invited to join with the others. Carol singers are organizing bands in practically every district in the city, and are meeting at different times to learn the words and music of the different songs which have been selected for the occasion. The Kalihi-waena school has been selected as the center of the carol singers for the Kalihi district, while the Palama Settlement will do its share toward making the undertaking a success. Clubs have been organized at Punahou, Manoa, Waikiki, Nuua-nu, Pauna and in other sections.

Above are the words and music to the well-known German carol, "Silent Night." Readers of the Star-Bulletin are requested to learn it and join in the singing in their respective districts.

PROMISED FOR THE PLAYHOUSES

EMPIRE THEATER

The great international series of games and sports, a contest that drew athletes from every corner of the civilized globe and served to place Honolulu on the map through the fame that followed the performance of Duke Ka-hanamoku, the champion swimmer, will be shown the public with the presentation of a three-reel feature taken at the time the series of Olympic games were being held at Stockholm.
The picture is predicted a decided attraction, in that it shows in several different scenes "Our Duke" as he enters the arena with the long line of famous athletes and contestants. The presentation of the trophies by the king of Sweden is an occasion where Kahanamoku is again seen at the front and center of the stage. The picture will be displayed for but a few days.
In addition to a number of first run comic and dramatic productions, Miss Dorothy Harris, the singing comedienne, will continue to hold the attention of patrons at this house throughout the holidays. Miss Harris has a new list of songs to offer.

BIJOU THEATER

The holiday spirit will prevail at the Bijou theater for the week and a big vaudeville bill has been arranged for presentation at the evening and two matinee performances.

Creeping!

Consumption never strikes a sudden blow. It creeps its way along.
First it is a cold; then a little hacking cough; then loss in weight; then a harder cough; then the fever, the night sweats, and hemorrhages.
Better stop the disease while it is yet creeping. Do you not think so?

WAVES BREAK LIGHT 132 FEET IN THE AIR

Shattering of Glass of Tillamook Station Shows Fury of Recent Coast Storm

[By Latest Mail]
PORTLAND, Ore.—Torrents of water thrown to a height of more than 100 feet above the sea broke two panes of heavy plate glass in the lantern of Tillamook light station during a southeast gale that raged along the coast at the rate of 84 miles an hour.

News of the damage reached Henry L. Beck, inspector of the seventeenth lighthouse district, in an official report from W. Dalgren, the keeper, brought to the mainland at the first opportunity.
For a period of fourteen and one-half hours the men on the light experienced the terrific onslaught from the sea.
